GOLD LIST

CODE	WINERY/WINE	COUNTRY/REGION	VINTAGE	£/WSP
710266	Bodega Norton Altura Cabernet Franc As this Argentinian Cabernet Franc took its well-deserved spot on the Gold podium, team leader Jan Konetzki spoke of 'sappy aromas of blackcurrant and red cherry, as well as some tomato leaf, which lead to a palate with some grip from smooth, polished tannins'. Team leader Martin Lam had praise for its 'very savoury nose, and a smokiness, too', while Moio Restaurant's Carolina W Seibel thought it 'very Argentinian, with some capsicum and dark berry notes'.	Argentina Mendoza	2017	13.00
740510	Domaine Tournon Shays Flat Vineyard Shiraz 'Great nose of sour cherry, black berry, mushroom and truffle,' said Gian Giacomo Stella of Simpsons Restaurant, while Charlie Carter of Ten Green Bottles described a 'richly stewed dark fruit palate a menthol and eucalyptus finish'.	Australia Pyrenees	2015	12.47
500210	Zero-G Grüner Veltliner ★ Food Matching Trophy Team leader Carlos Ferreira found an appealing tropical note to this Gold medal winner that would 'match very well with summer salads'. Andre Luis Martins of Cavalry & Guards Club added that the wine had a 'lemon zest and herbal character', describing it as 'very peppery with green apple and gentle mineral notes'. Quentin Loisel of Restaurant Sat Bains was very impressed: 'This ticks all the boxes and it's great value', while Olivier Gasselien of Hakkasan summed it up succinctly: 'Pure, focused and flinty.'	Austria Wagram	2018	9.20
782010	Quails' Gate Dry Riesling Team leader Hamish Anderson admired the 'restrained, cool nose of lime cordial and flowers' in this Gold-Listed Canadian Riesling, adding: 'It has really good lime acidity that cuts through a textured palate, plus this one will develop.' 'There's a great delivery of fleshy yet zippy fruit that leads to a freshness throughout,' said Christopher Delalonde MS of The Dorchester, adding: 'The taut yet limpid palate leads to a long, lemony finish'. 'There's an elegant petrol note, too, and I think this would make a great aperitif,' said Tobias Gorn of Boisdale Restaurants.	Canada Okanagan Valley	2017	14.96
464220	Château Minuty Rose et Or Côtes de Provence Rosé Judges were convinced of this rosé's place on the Gold List. It had 'savoury, crushed seashell aromas, and a fresh palate with good aromatic balance', according to team leader Martin Lam, while Suave Wine's Joseph Lunn was reminded of 'a Mediterranean garden', describing 'river stones, and a chalkiness, too'. Consultant Cinthia Lozano was similarly impressed, finding it 'stunning on the nose, with notes of jasmine and peaches', and adding that it was 'perfect for summer days and seafood'.	France Provence	2018	20.10
541500	Ca' del Bosco Chardonnay 'Youthful and charming,' began Texture's Alan Bednarski as judges declared this a Gold, going on to describe 'fantastic crunchy peach with well-balanced, generous French oak, and complex brioche and melted butter balancing the fresh limestone minerality and beautiful floral finish'. For The Glasshouse's Adam Michocki it was 'complex, with a pronounced intensity' with notes of 'lemon, lime, yellow grapefruit, melon and pomelo, as well as some white rose petals, and a touch oak to it, too'.	Italy Lombardy	2014	54.07
541102	Pratello Lugana Catulliano 'Really showing typicity, with a pronounced grassy and herbaceous nose, leading to a refreshing palate with some good acidity,' said Matteo Cali of Savoy Grill as this was elevated to Gold, while team leader Andre Luis Martins appreciated its 'gentle, perfumed peach aromas, some spice notes, and a lingering finish'. Bianca Potenza of Bluespoon Andaz Hotel - Amsterdam added further praise for its 'approachable style, with stone fruit and some herbaceous notes, too'.	Italy Lombardy	2018	10.89

569960	Umani Ronchi Jorio Montepulciano d'Abruzzo Impressed by this lighter, fresher style of Montepulciano d'Abruzzo, judges handed over a well-deserved Gold, while team leader Sarah Jane Evans MW described a 'silky palate full of juice, like plums and damson'. Consultant Cinthia Lozano appreciated its 'round tannins, and smooth and dry palate, with oaky notes of chocolate and coffee', while team leader Laura Rhys MS spoke highly of its 'dark cherries and blackcurrants, along with some liquorice spice'.	Italy Abruzzo	2016	11.25
569980	Umani Ronchi Pelago Team leader Hamish Anderson was impressed by this Gold winner's 'great nose and classical palate', going on to describe 'lavender and pepper aromas, with red fruit, spice and minerals, as well as good grip and structure on the finish'. Joshua Castle of Noble Rot described 'tannins suave and captivating, along with tomato leaf, ripe red fruit and cardamom spice', while team leader Lionel Periner thought the palate 'mature, full bodied, complex, with an elegant finish'.	Italy Marche	2014	24.94
544816	Mezzacorona Castel Firmian Chardonnay  ★ Food Matching Trophy  ★ Critics' Choice Trophy Unsurprisingly taking home a handful of awards, including a Gold medal, this Chardonnay drew praise from judges for its complex notes of 'apricot and lemon verbena', according to team leader Jan Konetzki, who enjoyed its 'grip, and a touch of elegant bitterness'. For Roberto Sanchez of Sexy Fish it was 'light and easy drinking, but with good balance, and some grassy, green notes – all at a remarkable price. A good by-the-glass option.'	Italy Trentino	2018	7.75
564817	Mezzacorona Castel Firmian Merlot Judges were impressed by this great-value Gold's 'maraschino cherries and baked plum notes, with a grippy, chalky texture and smooth tannins', began The Glasshouse's Adam Michocki, while Immacolata Cannavo of Hakkasan Mayfair spoke highly of its 'bright red fruit flavours of cherry and strawberry', before describing it as 'quite earthy, but with light, supple tannins'. 'A very fresh wine, with black pepper spice and herbal, rosemary notes,' added Flat Three Restaurant's Heesoo Kang.	Italy Trentino	2017	7.75
831183	Coopers Creek Gisborne Malbec With its 'lovely ripe fruit, balance and length', team leader Laurent Richet MS was happy to award this a Gold, adding that it was 'juicy, fleshy and meaty, with coffee aromatics', and suggesting it would work well with 'venison or leg of lamb'. Francesca Turra of Mondrian London suggested it would certainly work with 'fatty dishes' and Mattia Mazzi of The River Cafe thought that this Malbec was more 'in a Cahors style, as it's drier and fresher'.	New Zealand Gisborne	2016	10.41
515134	Quercus Cabernet/Merlot This great-value Slovenian red took Gold for its 'light, perfumed style, with bramble fruit and hawthorn, leading to a juicy palate of crunchy red berries and firm oak tannins', said team leader Angela Reddin, while Gymkhana Restaurant's Valentin Radosav found some additional complexity from 'delicate coffee bean notes, and an earthiness'. Bianca Potenza of Bluespoon Andaz Hotel - Amsterdam, meanwhile, enjoyed 'lively strawberry fruit', adding that this was 'a good match for duck'.	Slovenia Primorska	2017	7.84

GOLD LIST

CODE	WINERY/WINE	COUNTRY/REGION	VINTAGE	£/WSP
604330	Soto y Manrique La Viña Ayer Albillo Real As this Spanish orange wine earned itself a well-deserved place on the Gold List, team leader Laura Rhys MS remarked on its 'bruised apple notes', before praising its 'good weight and acidity'. Its 'pronounced intensity, along with mango purée and cooked pineapple', according to Lucie Kalertova of Caprice Holdings – Sexy Fish, combined with some additional 'ripe apricot and nectarine notes' would all help this wine 'to pair well with strong flavours'.	Spain Sierra de Gredos	2017	9.75
771120	Guenoc Petite Sirah This Gold Lister was praised by several judges for its aromatics and supple texture. 'The nose is very present,' said team leader Carlos Ferreira, 'with black fruits, rosemary, pine, black pepper and leather... the palate is also very elegant with good fruit complexity and a beautiful finish'. 'It's delicate and juicy with a touch of liquorice,' said Bianca Potenza of Bluespoon Andaz Hotel - Amsterdam, adding: 'It's also well balanced and good value for money.'	USA California	2016	9.48
772020	Sebastiani Zinfandel Elegance with richness assured this wine's place on the Gold List. 'An excellent wine,' said team leader Angela Reddin. For Markus Dilger of Dilger Sommelier Selection the wine brought a heady mix of 'plum, date and dark cherries, with earthy notes of leather and sweet cinnamon spice', while the palate was 'well balanced and long, finishing with chocolatey smoothness'. There are 'subtle notes of strawberry jam with clotted cream and scones', mused Michael Fiducia of The Royal Automobile Club, admiring the 'elegant nuances on the palate'.	USA Sonoma County	2015	12.93
770250	Silverado Estate Cabernet Sauvignon For Chiara Sieni of Bottles Group this inevitable addition to the Gold List was 'very floral, with an intense violet bouquet, along with wild berry and forest fruits – an elegant wine, with a long finish'. The Cross Kenilworth, Simpsons & Edgbaston's Giuseppe Longobardi, meanwhile, appreciated notes of 'cherry, pencil and tar on the nose, leading to a fruity palate with a smoky finish', adding that its 'tannins need rich flavours and meat dishes'.	USA Napa Valley	2014	32.04
760100	Joseph Phelps Freestone Vineyards Chardonnay 'This has a delicate marzipan note with white flower blossom,' said ETM Group's Guillaume Mahaut of this aromatic Gold Lister, while Ieva Markaityte of Portuguese Concepts picked up 'elegant ripe melon' with 'a touch of fresh thyme flowers'. For team leader Lionel Periner the wine was both 'elegant' and 'full bodied, with a long ripe fruit finish and good acidity', and fellow team leader Tom Forrest noted 'pineapple and peach fruit, with a fresh apple, mineral finish'.	USA Sonoma County	2016	38.00
